

LANDHAUS DANIELSHOF

CONFERENCE FOLDER

The Landhaus Danielshof is a professional partner in organizing and hosting your business meetings or events.

Located amidst the historical village structure of Alt-Kaster and surrounded by enchanting parklands, the Landhaus Danielshof was originally built in 1820 as a large Rhineland farmhouse. After a diverse history, it was transformed into an idyllic hotel and seminar center.

With great sensitivity and empathy, a blend of romance, natural beauty, history, and modern seminar technology has been created, offering your event a unique and individual setting. The character and rural atmosphere provide an unforgettable backdrop for your event.

Our philosophy – friendly, customer-oriented, and performance-driven – is rooted in the joy of our profession. From arrival to departure, the team at Landhaus Danielshof, comprised of selected professionals, ensures your needs are met.

The restored core of the old farmstead houses 41 individual hotel rooms, some decorated with antique furniture. They offer the tranquility and comfort of yesteryear along with all the conveniences of modern times.
